

Pet agreement

We are sure your companion is grateful to go on holiday with you. We are very happy to welcome your animal at L'Autre Maison, in order to continue to welcome pets with confidence into our home, we ask you to take note of these simple rules.

Upon arrival, a quick visit of the premises is essential ... I take the opportunity to locate my new territory and get to know Léo, the owner of the place.

Access to the bedroom is permitted but I cannot climb onto the beds and other furniture.

I do not go out alone in the courtyard, the swimming pool can be a danger for me as for the children.

I am clean, I do not make my needs inside the house (courtyard included). In the village my owner will pick up, my droppings are put in a bag and thrown in the trash.

I must avoid creating noise disturbances.

Alone at home, I will be sad and so will my owner. Don't leave me locked in the bedroom.

Me too I am on vacation, but don't forget my regular walks, nature is easy to reach, just a stone's throw away.

Any of my damage will be deducted from the deposit.

By establishing this agreement, we want to be able to welcome your animal with confidence, continue to accept them at no additional cost and allow you to be able to travel with your faithful companion.

Thank you in advance for respecting these basic rules during your stay at L'Autre Maison.
